- If the gown needs more than "normal" alterations, there will be a pending charge added to receipt. Cost will be determined by the seamstress and is dependent upon the time spent altering the garment and by what needs to be done to the garment.
- If fabric needs to be added to enlarge the gown or if the seamstress needs more time to fix than what is "normally" allowed, we will not alter the gown. We do have names of seamstresses that we can suggest but The Bridal Corner, Inc. cannot be held responsible for the work done on the gown.
- The Bridal Corner, Inc. cannot be held responsible for choosing a size for the pre/post/pregnant bridesmaid or bride. We will be happy to go over the size chart and make a recommendation but it is ultimately the bridesmaid/bride's decision.
